Melaka

Strategically located along the Straits of Malacca, Melaka was once the epicentre of an important trading empire which attracted thousands of traders from all over the world. Historical buildings and sites abound in Melaka, the birthplace of the nation's historical and cultural heritage.

Remnants of its long and illustrious past under the successive rule of the Portuguese, Dutch and British are well-preserved and can still be seen today, earning it the prestigious title of a UNESCO World Heritage City in 2008. Beyond the historical crowd-pullers are scenic rustic settlements and a rich cultural landscape.

GT GETTING THERE

Melaka is situated approximately 144km from Kuala Lumpur, 90km from Port Dickson and 224km from Johor Bahru. Melaka International Airport is located in Batu Berendam, approximately 10km from Melaka City (State Capital). If you're driving, the North-South Expressway runs through the state and provides easy access to its attractions, which are located near the Simpang Ampat, Ayer Keroh and Lipat Kajang exits. Melaka Sentral, the new bus and taxi terminal in Peringgit, is roughly 6km from the city.

Malaysian Railway or Keretapi Tanah Melayu Berhad (KTMB) operates regular train services from various parts of the country to Tampin and vice-versa. KTMB's Tampin / Pulau Sebang Station is situated approximately 38km from Melaka City.

Melaka is accessible by sea from Dumai, Indonesia. Visitors arriving by sea will disembark at the Melaka International Ferry Terminal in Taman Kota Laksamana. The journey from Dumai takes about 2 ½ hours.
